DISCOURSE IN DEMOCRACY

POSI 1308 AND POSI 1309 STUDENTS FALL 2007

“Discourse in Democracy” consists of a series of curricular enhancement activities for Political Science and Public Administration majors that are enrolled in POSI 1308 and POSI 1309. The activities are scheduled outside of class time and 1308 and 1309 professors will require student attendance at some of the events as a part of the class grade. The activities will be held in an informal setting and will be designed to encourage social interaction with the speakers and with other students. Food and fun will be a part of all scheduled events.

POSI 1308 and POSI 1309 students will be required to attend the following events/activities:

“Meet the Professors” (first event)

“Join the Discourse” (5 “Join the Discourse Events” are scheduled; student must participate in 2 of the 5 scheduled events)

“Alumni Panel” (final event)
